AARTO Education Awareness in Gansbaai

The Road Traffic Infringement Agency (RTIA), is taking AARTO services closer to the road user community with a four-day AARTO Roadshow activation programme which will take place from Malmesbury to Gansbaai from 15 -18 November 2022. The RTIA is continuously reaching to motorists in vast remote areas of South Africa, to conduct Administrative Adjudication of Road Traffic Offences (AARTO) Public Education Awareness Campaign.

The road users will be assisted to check their AARTO infringement status, and are advised on how to resolve the same AARTO infringements by selecting from the available legislated elective options. The AARTO Act is aimed at enhancing law enforcement in municipalities by introducing a standard, equitable and fair traffic contravention system. The four-day's activities will unfold as follows;

Tuesday 15 November 2022

Activity: Knock 'n Drop
Time: 08:00am - 12:00pm
Venue: Malmesbury

Wednesday, 16 November 2022

Activity: Know Your Traffic Fine Status
Time: 08:00am – 12:00pm
Venue: Spar Gansbaai

Thursday, 17 November 2022

Activity: Knock 'n Drop and Know Your Traffic Fine Status
Time: 08:30am – 13:30pm
Venue: Kleinmond Traffic Department

Friday, 18 November 2022

Activity: AARTO Friday
Time: 10:00am – 14:00pm
Venue: Stanford Traffic Department

Journalists who will be attending the AARTO Public Education awareness activities or requesting interviews should contact Emmanuel Tshehla 060 586 0877 or email: Emmanuel.Tshehla@rtia.co.za.
